TESTIMONIALS

“I have been fortunate to work with Evelyn St Germain and League Marketing for many years. Always a dynamic and growing portfolio of hotels and DMC’s to keep pace with an ever-evolving industry!

Aside from the consistent kind and professional engagement, the timely responses to requests, big and small, place them a cut above!!”

“After 42 years of being in this business I have learned that a good connection with sales and marketing companies is a must. I have been connected with LMG for over 20 years and have booked many of the properties multiple times and Evelyn always makes sure the clients are well taken care of when on their journeys. LMG is also a big believer in seeing and getting to know the properties is a must for her travel agent clients so she puts out many Fam Trips a year which really help when it comes to having the confidence in personally knowing the property and or the Tour Operators. You can sell with confidence when booking LMG portfolio.”

“First of all I want to say is how much I appreciate everything that you do and all of the exciting adventures LMG brings to us as travel agents and to our clients as well. I say adventures because that is what LMG provides. Learning about new destinations and the properties represented by LMG is at many times like opening a door to a different world. Whether it be a private island in French Polynesia or a guest ranch near the California wine country. LMG is a constant source of great information.

Thank you LMG for keeping all of us informed!”
